Crete is a mountainous island ideal for car hire.

Crete may be one of the last places of Europe that climate is ideal for a long life living. It is true Cretan people and Macedonian-south Greeks and North Greeks- are the longlived people of Europe. A combination of climate, good quality of food(vegetables and most juice, fruits, vegetables, wheat, meat are produced on the island Crete) helps making everyones life easier and more pleasant. The island of Crete is a native island.

Substantially Cretans get to know what really can be achieved when all contribute in the right confrontation of daily problems that concerning the environment and how it should be protected .
